

On the off chance that the individual is expending liquor it can be effortlessly identified by alcoholic sensors and if any temperature misused it can be recognized by temperature sensors.